Choose the option below that best fits your company's vision of health, wellness and financial commitment.

Option #1: Employee Wellness Program-Fully Subsidized by Employer (The YMCA will send an invoice monthly for 100% of the monthly membership dues)

Option #2: Partners in Health-Partially Subsidized by Employer (The YMCA will send an invoice monthly for the company contribution + the employees' monthly payroll deduction)

Option #3: Invest in Yourself-Not Subsidized by Employer (Employee will pay monthly membership dues through bank draft)

YMCA Responsibility

- We will provide facility usage reports upon request monthly, quarterly or annually.
- Employee must be included in the membership in order to receive corporate discounts
- Once a year (January), the YMCA will send a list of current members under this employer to verify they are still eligible for a corporate membership discount.

Corporate Responsibility

- The employer will provide a corporate contact that will be the primary contact with the YMCA.
- The employer will review the list of current employees and notify the YMCA of anyone no longer employed.
- The employer will promote The YMCA of Catawba Valley to all current and future employees. This will include but not limited to:
 - Allowing YMCA staff to distribute YMCA literature and/or in person informational visits to all employees.
 - YMCA literature in new employee packets/orientations.
 - Posters/Flyers in break rooms/staff rooms.
 - Send informational emails that can be forwarded to all employees.

This explanation of corporate membership benefits in no way represents a contract between your company and the YMCA. Your company or The YMCA of Catawba County may dissolve this agreement at any time.
